

Glenn T. Infinger

ginfinger@mazconlaw.com
404.888.8845 (O)
404.926.2945 (F)

Areas of Focus

Nonqualified Retirement Plans
Employee Stock Ownership
Plans
Equity Compensation
Severance Plans
Transactional Benefits
Executive Compensation
Executive Contracts and Employment Agreements
Section 409A
Change in Control
Agreements
Excess Parachute Payments
SEC Reporting and Disclosures
Employment Counseling
Restrictive Covenants and Trade Secrets

Education

Campbell University
B.B.A., 1974; cum laude

University of South Carolina
School of Law
J.D., 1981; Order of the Coif
and Order of Wig and Robe

Before joining Mazursky Constantine, Glenn was Chief Counsel for Benefits and Executive Compensation at BellSouth Corporation, where he advised the company's senior executive team and Board of Directors with respect to a broad range of human resources matters.

His practice focuses on:

- Executive compensation and benefits;
- Employment and separation agreements;
- Equity and other incentive pay arrangements;
- Change in control agreements;
- Trust management and related investment and fiduciary activities; and
- Transactional and compliance issues of qualified and nonqualified benefit plans.
- Restrictive covenants

Glenn is a member of the State Bar of Georgia.